

We're here to listen

Call our bilingual (English/Cantonese) service helpline now for FREE information and support about cancer, or just to share your concerns with someone who can listen and understand. Our registered nurses and social workers can offer both practical and emotional support if you or your family have been touched by cancer.

When you call, you'll have access to:

- Professional guidance and counselling.
- Information on cancer.
- Ways to cope with treatments, side effects and rehabilitation.
- Advice on how to live a healthier, happier life with cancer.

We're here to help

If you are facing cancer we can provide you with support.

- Professional counselling.
- Peer support.
- Psychosocial outreach services.
- Young survivors support.
- Self-help groups.
- Nursing consultation.
- Dietetic services.
- Wellness programmes.
- Rehabilitation services.
- Therapeutic workshops.
- Relief funds and subsidies.

If you are a family member we can help.

- Therapeutic workshops/practical talks to help you navigate the cancer journey together as a family.
- Rainbow Club provides support for children aged 5-17 whose parents have cancer.

About Cancer Fund Support Centres

Our Support Centres provide cancer patients, survivors, and their families with FREE multi-disciplinary care to meet their practical, physical and emotional needs.

About Hong Kong Cancer Fund

As Hong Kong's largest cancer care organisation, our mission is to ensure that no one faces cancer alone. Through our network of free support, spanning the hospital, the home and the community, we're committed to making life better for people touched by cancer. Receiving no money from the government or the Community Chest, we rely solely on public generosity to sustain our free and ongoing cancer care services.
