

We're here to listen

Call our bilingual (English/Cantonese) service hotline now for FREE information and support about cancer, or just to share your concerns with someone who can listen and understand. Our registered nurses and social workers can offer both practical and emotional support if you or your family have been touched by cancer.

When you call, you'll have access to:

- Information on cancer screening
- Professional guidance and counselling
- Ways to cope with treatments, side effects and rehabilitation
- Advice on how to live a healthier, happier life with cancer

We're here to help

If you are facing cancer we can provide you with support.

- Professional counselling
- Peer support
- Home care programmes
- Young survivors support
- Self help groups support
- Nursing consultation
- Dietetic services
- Wellness programmes
- Rehabilitation services
- Therapeutic workshops
- Relief funds and subsidies

If you are a family member we can help.

- Therapeutic workshops/practical talks to help you navigate the cancer journey together as a family
- Rainbow Club provides support for children aged 5-15 whose parents have cancer

About CancerLink

Hong Kong Cancer Fund provides a network of services through its five CancerLink support centres, which offer FREE services and information to those with cancer as well as their family members and friends.

About Hong Kong Cancer Fund

Established in 1987, Hong Kong Cancer Fund is the city's largest cancer support organisation, providing free information and professional support to anyone living with or affected by cancer. Receiving no money from the government or the Community Chest, we rely solely on public generosity to sustain our free and ongoing cancer support services.
